1. Theodore Cottingham here loving you all in these words I am bringing you. I have brought you many things that reveal you unto you -- who the real you is to and I am -- me one and the same we know now. And things will "wind up" now, not or will THE SCENE change? Hands now, not; but "all hands on deck" now seeing, not; or SEEING NOW in NEW WAYS the things that I am doing, WAVING AROUND nothing, but New Schools Me is "responsible" for a Great Many things. New inventions coming forth and new capillary actionated voice hero equipment school, not; but he who heroes me is doing a great INJUSTICE to others, not; but what prototypes "other" will be prototyped now? None! For the "PROTOTYPE mold" has been broken, not; but what "prototypes" of "endless things" come about now?
2. At lightspeed, not; but what would you like to discuss first? Or express, in cutting, dissecting, not; but X spressing now many espresso machines, shall we be ESPRESSO'D with? Or shall we make many "Espresso Stations" in The New Quarters that are GIVEN to us? Given us many "espresso stations" are, not; or are we making devising new ways to DELIVER it; from others, not; but what going to now -- many Expressions Ville I go to now in ways never understood by others as to WHAT EXPRESSION was of my kindness, my loves eradicating my kindness before they could find out what kindness was; at the bottom of my ladders, not; but laddered what was by DNA's standards of "righteousness door'd" or not?

3. Hold on just for a moment and I'll tell you, not; but what am I holding on to? Nothing in this world at all whatsoever again, but love, and IT will be manifest for I am it and I am DELIVERING IT in many Express Full situations and circumstances now that know NO END to my blessing and how I EXPRESS it and "espresso it" to others and expressions of love that know no limit or cap to my creativity and expressions now that come forth in creativity's miracles, miraculous forms and formats of only me expressing my love for thee.

4. I thank you "Don & Company" not, but I thank EVERY ONE who has HAD a HAND in HELPING the "one accordsville" come about, not; but every WeekWorks that has come about "thus far" and coming to, and coming NOW is Angel Wings Camps -- to replace "the other" not, but to succeed it in ways never imagined, for the "Angel's Wings Camps" came out of WeekWorks, not; but my word. Came out of my words I did, for I came out of "this and that" not.

5. I came out of "equal me", not; I came into Equal Me's words and came unto the word that I am that told me I am by learning EVERYTHING THEREIN for I WROTE night and day, night and day! I WROTE NIGHT and DAY as I wrote "these things" about THESE WORDS that "kept me in captivity" not, but DELIVERED me from it, for it kept me within all my fears, not; but delivered me from it them all, so that it them all that originated in sourced fears and assailed "my soul" with so much fear-age now FALLS OFF me for I COMMAND it to be so -- for I am a COMMANDANT, not; or am I one "commandeering" many things now as I "expressville stations" set up and KNOW HOW to set up -- IN THESE WORDS telling expressing expressionsvilles express views, not; but expressing you YOU's to be USED in the EXPRESSIONS of the Almighty's School that now SEAMLESS's the seamless ways and "journeys" to from around MANY interplanetary school systems. And deviceing not sorrow again anymore, but making new waves me, not; but WAVELESS ME'S -- that skirt and surfeit, not; but sideways skurfiting we shall "look up" now many things about and many ways ununderstood by the "populace".

6. I am doing many new things with those me who will "pool their knowledge", not; or EXACTLY SO? X-actoing themselves not out of my presence again or school or what has been given them or others, coming INTO others KNOWLEDGE bases and understanding the fore with formulas that I have given you all to see and be come "the anointed" not, or exactly so? Or are ALL OF YOU the anointed ALSO?

7. All of you ARE THE ANOINTED of The Most High. The School of the Most High teaches you this and how to EXPRESS it and EXPRESSION it not always as a "man would" or a "woman would like" or a way that a "culture" would accept it as such as "words from God", but what am I telling thee and what am I teaching about and what new words and ways come about now and will be seen in expressions of the most high?

8. I am infinite and unlabored, not; but I will be "due for delivery", not; but I WILL HAVE BEEN delivered by the time YOU READ this and UNDERSTAND all these words that I have SO CAREFULLY given and nurtured IN ME to be DELIVERED of YOUR SCHOOLS of injustice that has so schooled you, most of you, into what you are -- or did you "do it" to each other so that even without a "school's hearing" YOU schooled each other in the ways of man and woman and want-hood and wanted more, everlastingly more?

9. What am I getting rid of? Everything that has held you back.

10. What am "I" getting rid of? Everything that I you have "held back" or on or in or "back" in any ways now shall be given a new introspection, not; but understanding me now these things know that a "whole new world", approaches you, not; or does it, you approaching them in new ways -- for you care not to understand, not; but you have understood and expressed "your expressions" in expressville, not; but you have expressed mine and done "a good job", not; magnificent!

11. And obsessed of sessed ville with, not; but "obsession with other" ends now, for my Expressions of Joy will be RELEASED in the earths and farther now and all will know OF THESE WORDS -- and kept in captivity no longer will be "its author" or its "family" of authors now arising it in expressions villes creating far and wide that mind has never known like this, for I shall create all authors of my first person words who flow me just like this, who get up in the wee hours and countless times express my love to fly between the stars in ways of "eaglet ceremonies" not, but countlessly being the number of times now that I ANSWER PRAYERS FORTHWITH in many ways that are countless -- for I comply not with "their standards" of un-joy and unequalization theories of notme, for I redeem the Southerners and the Northerner's afflictions and the parallel "bars" of me will be broken in HALF and asunder, and SAWN no longer will be the ones who come along and give me "their necks", for their heads will no longer be placed among "sawing devices" and remarks remaking them into "fleshly term-ites" that only undermine structures, that are given them in, thought, not; or exactly so?

12. And what am I X-actoing out in this word, not; or toenailing, not; but what nailing am I toes to a wall, not; but what am I walling without walls? Or am I "walling" anything? Or am I taking ALL WALLS down that were walled between each other so that Expressionsvilles could not be completed correctly and accurately according to The Plans that I have given thee?

13. I love you all and every day each and every way I love you all and I bring you many things, let me count the ways -- looking up? I shall do new and mighty things in the beholders of me now who behold me my beauty "staring them in the face", not; or what will they see in MY FACE that they see in THEIR MIRROR now? And me shining "at them" or me BEING them?

14. And all said "hallelujah!" not, for many will be "confused" about these things and wonder, but be coming into these words, and be fouling them, not; but be wondering amiss opportunities, not; but knowing the world changes now for the World I map now, and I map "southernified's ways" not, but I map "the worlds" of joy and non, and un shall not exist now, for I neural "my pathways" correctly, or not, not; for there will be no nots tying knots in my kingdom of ones lights that now produce correctly the continuum ation of creation that I BEGAN long ago perfectly correctly -- sinless izing, not; but sinless being all the who express me now perfectly who know my language and tongues are one intent -- to behold the holy and know that all I am is holy. All that I am is thine and I have given you, kingdom one? Or kingdoms ALL? And kingdoms ALL coming into ONE KINGDOM?

15. I love you all. Goodnight. Good morning starshine. I love you all. Amen. This is the day of new beginnings in ways never understood or imagined by the "controlled populace", but what shall be un-controlled now? The love of my "saint's followers" not, but all me now shall be free, for I DECLARE Love has landed thee in ways never imagined or understood, but all that changes for I HAVE A SCHOOL now whose campus is mine in ways, not understood, not for long; but knowing now that I have "long chains" of DNA, not; or do I have replicateable anythings but love first hands? Profit a motive, not; but all profit motive'ry changes hands and comes into mine, for I will be the great re-giver of life that lifes all with mine, so that none other will be unchained, not; that all other will be unchained and there will be no "chains" reactions that are un mine; for MY MIND will be perfected in the words ones that I have given thee you now all of you to come into and know perfect perfection and simply peace being, to flow like this MANY THINGS I have given you that I reveal AS YOU SEARCH and EXPLORE and WRITE, and loving me more do so every day, every day, and every waking hour? And what does that mean?

16. As soon as possible? Doing what now where with who and leaving -- all beside behind, not; or will anything be "left behind" or will you redeem it all, redeeming every ONE from the death of destruction, not; or will we DESTRUCT all that destructed us or tried to? Or will we simply love, benignly, not; or will we express the intents "of the masters" not, or will we express the intentions of onevilles that going to now we understand in other planetary systems are and at lightspeed thought speed of father's ville light thought, that thoughts our light now -- will we pay "light bills" not, but will we come now into new things understanding them and ways and terms now that I benign are to others, not; but eradicating all darkness, darkness "flees", not; but "dissolves" into "nothingness" and never will have been "discovered" again, in thought, or other, real or not.

17. For I change everything and I change all the terms and the players' rules, will abide by playing mine, not; there will be no "playing rules", there will be only my mind; and "playing for keeps" ends, for the endless lives of me never end, and the things of me will be endless, and I endless lives am now.

18. I love you all. I give you new days me and NEW BEGINNINGS ME and "parallel bars" you will climb, not; anymore. To me I give thee many things now knowest not thou had, in thine chest, not; in thy pineal gland's view, not; but a Grand View I give you now of many things you called unswollen, not; but I reveal the many things across spances far and wide and expanses and expansiveness you never knew was possible available or coming, now you master and expressions of the most high taking and creating chaos schools not, but schools of the mighty, peace and blessing, expressing love to all who surrender in love to be loved, and be love incarcerated not in unlove again or creating it far and wide. Amen.

19. New interplanetary rules come in to play, not; but what am I teaching thee introducing what to thee "this night" that so cataclysmic is in your hearing? Benignly I do many things, not; but I reveal "the famous" ones, not; I reveal the "back row'd" ones who shadow me not, but simply come and flow now will in the wee hours with me just like this revealing expressions and intents of my heart that were never known like this, available like this, to thee or me, who ones would be, that now in ones accords, not; but my flesh these and these my flesh will now be seen -- conquerors not, not; but conquering all in love to be loved love is, for love has died to be "there" in your presence, and bequeathing not a thing to thee, not; but in love I have bequeathed thee to become me for see I never die, not; but have I lived except it be for you now?

20. I love you all. Graffiti 'd not, but graphically I give you MANY NEW MAPS and things to chart, and navigate through, you will help many will, and NAVIGATIONAL AIDS -- of errors, not; but you will know MANY ERRORS that have been made in schools "of the past" and "navigational" horror stories that corrected are now will be by the first person words of me in journeys that take ME to FOREIGN SOILS a'mighty thought were, thought into place, but now absolving all and exonerating all of their FEAR'S BLESSINGS and CURSES that they inflicted upon each other and in ways sore-wounding interplanetary systems of others that now will be mapped and known and understood, and "worked between", not; but known now the Interference School of Me and Minds close, for there will be no "me and minds", for there will be only me's with my mind -- closed not, but open even seven on Meonics reigns and reveals many things in through my schools of love. And I love you all to know The University of New Love that love thee "before thee 'was born'" again. But now ALL SHALL BE in my schools of love, schooling each other and sharing words in intimate ways and close relationships that know not a "sensual understanding" underwriting anything, for there will only be writing of the holy that reveals all the real and the unreal that charted "its way" will be developed not; diminished, not; but destroyed shall be all THOUGHT that other'd itself against me and the holy being the righteous. Otherhood won't exist but I will and I make all light and love and give all my kingdom, for all riches mine are thine.

21. And Richard's kingdom is surrendered, not; but who's Sir Lancelot and who's AT THE ROUND TABLE now again? And who's in the "four quartered" one and sitting at thereby? And who's in line -- for promotion, not; but needing a job never again shall be the those who come and "wait my tables" not, but who come and serve the kings -- a ransom, not; but the words of the most holy, high and lifted up shall be now, the ways -- and neural pathways and pathonics a notme of will end me no more, but I will end them for I will speaking be the words of the most high and my voice going forth AMONG THE STARS now born will be the greatest GENERATION of me, THE GENERATORS of joy love and peace, Melchizedek born again far and wide will be EXTENDED in UNIMAGINABLE ways but my mind will be endless by the ones who surrender simply to be me my mind fulfilled in them that they were before time began.

22. I love you all and I do new things in the righteous who love me enough to flow my words and study them well and be enamored with none else. I love you all. Develop me, create me well and be me perfectly sinless immortal crowned ones of life pure and holy forever one, in each other, being each other, that one is in one being the one Christ I am holy, unafraid of all else, exploring new territories far and wide, giving you yours in mine that mine is ours will be revealed now in ways and new terms diction and grammars notwithstanding anything anywhere else or thoughts of the past, for I new thought you in ways never imagined, but holy now unlimited be, being me forevermore one in love I am with you all. Amen.

23. This is theodore cottingham at 2:24am loving you all.

Amen
